THE SHAKERITE

37th Year, No. 15——Shaker Heights High School, Shaker Heights, Ohio——June 8, 1967

Good Sports Raise Money

In order to raise money for their physical education scholarship, three Shaker girls' athletic clubs have joined forces. The Girls' Leaders Club, the Sharcs Club, and the Swim Leaders Club will together sponsor a car wash on Saturday, June 3, from 9:00 until 3:00 in the north parking lot.

THE FUNDS raised will go toward a scholarship which will be given to a senior girl who is planning to be a physical education major in college. One of three applicants will be chosen.

Already making plans for next year are the newly elected officers of all three clubs. For Girls' Leaders Club, the new officers are: Crystal King, president; Gina Rogers, vice president; Linda Schloss, secretary; Mary Weckesser and Gretchen Mayher, treasurers, and Nancy Bonfils, social chairman. Officers for the Sharcs Club are Patty Loveman, president; Betsy Stage, vice president; Judy Pentek, secretary; Fran Spector, treasurer. The new officers of the Swim Leaders Club are: Amy Sands, president; Betsy Krieble, vice president, Nancy Marcus, secretary; Jan Bloomfield, treasurer; and Barb Berger, service chairman.

Outgoing Seniors Honor Outstanding Classmates

Katherine Mayher and Robert Barber are this year's recipients of the Shaker Square Citizenship Awards. The class of '67 chose these two students from their classmates on the basis of leadership, scholarship, integrity, and school service.

As the twenty-first pair of annual recipients of the awards, Katie and Bob both aptly demonstrated these characteristics. Katie, as recording secretary of Student Council and a member of the Welfare Committee, has continuously participated in the Council's activities. An enthusiastic athlete, she has participated in varsity hockey and is a member of the Girls' Leaders Club. Katie was also Senior Class Social Chairman and an editor on the Gristmill.

Bob has forcefully demonstrated his leadership ability as vice-president of Student Council in his senior year. Bob's many extra-curricular activities include his participation in varsity basketball, his experience as an Eagle Scout, and his involvement in the Ohio Association of Student Councils and the American Legion. Bob attained the position of National Merit Finalist.

Next fall, Katie will attend Pitzer College and will probably major in sociology. Bob will attend Princeton University to major in politics and government service.

Runners up for the award were Jack Drewry, William Hoffman, Abby Whitman, and Linda Wolff. Each received a book from the Dad's Club. Principal John A. Stanavage presented the awards to Katie and Bob at the assembly.

Staff Plans Diverse Activities For Summer and Following Year

With few weeks remaining in the current school year, Shaker teachers look forward to varied plans for both the summer and next year.

MRS. S. IRENE NARWOLD, Kenyon Cramer, James Chrysler, Robert Goodman, Thomas Russell, David Santoro, and Paul Wild have special plans for the 1967-1968 school year. Mrs. Narwold, the only retiring staff member will do substitute teaching. Mr. Goodman will be leaving Shaker to work at the Educational Research Center. Mr. Russell will return to Nigeria to train Peace Corps volunteers. Mr. Wild will be teaching at University High School at Kent State University. Mr. Chrysler will be attending the University of Mexico for additional graduate study. Both Mr. Cramer and Mr. Santoro will be taking a year's leave; Mr. Cramer to write a book, Mr. Santoro to do work toward his doctorate at Ohio State University.

Teaching part-time next year will be John Vargo, who will be working in the area of production for WVIZ, and Mrs. Francine Kroner, who will be doing graduate work at Western Reserve University.

AS FOR SUMMER plans, James Bristol, after attending the Harvard University commencement to receive the Teacher-of-the-Year award, will attend a mathematic institute in Pennsylvania. Ray Everett will be studying mathematics at the University of California at Santa Barbara, under a National Science Foundation Fellowship.

Joseph Szwaja and Carmen Parasility will be working in the human relations department of PACE. Jerry Graham will be teaching summer school at Wittenberg University. In addition, Terrance Pollack and Miss Dorothy Lungmus have received NDEA Fellowships. Mr. Pollack will study at the University of Virginia, and Miss Lungmus will study at the University of Illinois.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE teachers Miss Joyce Grande and Mrs. Francisca DeCarlo will be working on their Masters' Degrees at Western Reserve University. Frances Warnement will be working on a project in Boulogne, France, sponsored by New York University.

In addition, Daniel Hodermarsky will be working at PACE.

Honored Graduates Receive Pre-Commencement Awards

This morning's Honor Day ceremony marks the beginning of senior graduation activities for the class of 1967. Other events include the Senior Prom and Commencement.

THE TRADITIONAL Honor Day program features the Senior Processional and the presentation of awards to outstanding class members. The highly coveted Citizenship Awards are given. Candidates for the girls' citizenship award are Abby Whitman, Katie Mayher, and Linda Wolff; boys nominated are Bob Barber, Jack Drewry, and Bill Hoffman.

After the student body is dismissed at 11:00, the seniors stay for a Coke party featuring a humorous skit summing up their years at Shaker.

ON JUNE 14, at 8:30, the Senior Prom will be held at the Somerset Inn. The Xavier Club will be the scene of the After-Prom Party at 2:00 a.m.

Commencement ceremonies will be Friday, June 16, at Severance Hall. The invocation will be given by the Reverend Kurt Voss. The Commencement speaker is William G. Saltonstall, former director of the Peace Corps in Nigeria. He will also speak at a luncheon on June 16, and at a Board of Education dinner that night, before Commencement.

THE CLASS GIFT this year will consist of two parts. Out of a total of $600, half will go to the Reverend Jonathon Barnes, head of the Good Samaritan Youth Center. Seniors will hold a rummage sale and donate their old clothes to needy people in Hough. The remaining money will be left to a school fund.

James Bristol, mathematics department chairman, will receive one of the four Harvard University Secondary School Teacher of the Year awards, June 14. Jules Lodish, a Shaker graduate, nominated Mr. Bristol as the secondary teacher who had the greatest influence upon him. Mr. Bristol will receive a check for $1,200 at Harvard's commencement exercises. The SHAKERITE extends its congratulations to Mr. Bristol.

Semanteme Plans Staff

The present Semanteme editors have selected their staff for next year on the basis of a written, spontaneous try-out undertaken by prospective applicants earlier this spring. Tentative plans for the 1968 issues have been made, with Mrs. Francine Kroner replacing Paul Wild as the staff adviser.

THE EDITORS have appointed Todd Bayer to supervise the first issue and Tom Skove as editor of the second issue, and are considering having a third.

Council Officers Appoint New Committee Chairmen

Numerous committees play an integral part in the functions of Student Council. Each year, outgoing seniors vacate many of these committee positions, which are then filled by the present juniors and sophomores. This year, Bruce Johnson and Anna Ginn, as the Council's new president and vice-president, made the appointments.

THE OFFICERS interviewed each of the 130 applicants for committee chairmanships to determine his inclinations and abilities and any suggestions he could offer concerning the improvement of present Council procedures. This was doubly constructive to Bruce and Anna, who had an opportunity to meet many of the students with whom they will work next year.

The officers made the following appointments: Assembly Committee, chairmen, Meg Geismer and Pattie Loveman; senior representative, Terri Frisch; junior representative, Jib Lampl; Dress Code Committee, chairman, Betsy Stage; Printing Committee, chairman, Alan Lowry; Curriculum Committee, chairman, Joe Stern; Student Aid Committee, chairmen, Betsy Broder and Ken Wyse, junior representative, Marian Schwartz; Club Committee, chairman, Louise Todd, senior representative, Sue Colquhoun, junior representative, Debbie Miller; Publicity Committee, chairmen, Callie Boardman and Audrey Scopilliti; Bookstore Committee, chairmen, Joel Spector and David Robinson; Welfare Committee, chairman, Giles Carter, senior representative, Ellen Holdstein, junior representative, Heidi Verne, project leaders, Melinda Hansen (tutoring) and Nancy Bonfils (car wash); Scrapbook, Bonnie Tyler and Debby Squires; Student Employment Committee, chairman, Rhonda Krenitz, junior representative, Ann Rowland; Booster Committee, Bill Warner and Betsy Mayers, co-chairmen.

Bruce and Anna are still considering other appointments.

Seniors Freda Wilkerson, Gene Naherny, Cindy Larkby, Renny Ruckberg, Abby Whitman, Bob Barber, Cay Young, Ellen Sands, Ellen Picard, and Marshall Cohen discuss senior skit plans.

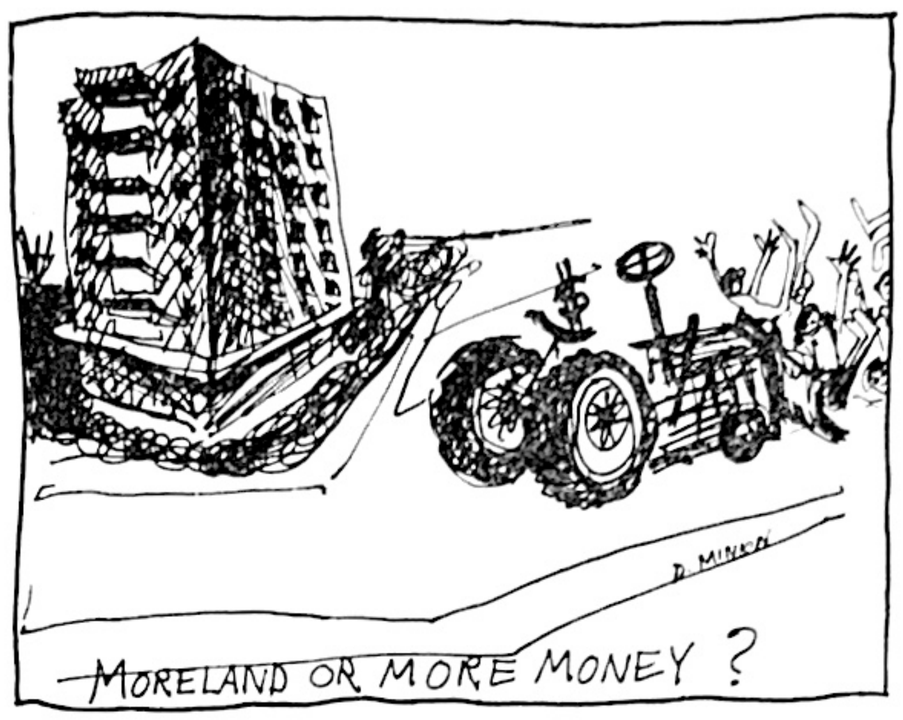
Moreland Renewal Plan Causes Added Problems

Shaker Heights has maintained its fine reputation through modern and progressive development ideas. City officials recently announced an elaborate project that will revamp major sections of the city. The planned additions are needed and welcomed, but problems that have arisen over plans for the Moreland community must be resolved if urban developments are to take place.

The Moreland area, bordered by Chagrin, Lee, and Van Aken, has often been described as a "step-child" to the larger part of Shaker. The present city administration sees the distinction as an unfortunate one and, in an effort to remedy the situation, has introduced a rehabilitation and development program in the community. Officials have formed plans for a multi-million dollar Civic Center that would offer activities ranging from adult education to indoor tennis courts. The construction of this center would take place in a significant portion of the Moreland area.

Officials plan to rehabilitate all available houses and construct high-cost housing in the place of inadequate structures. Since the majority of the residents in the Moreland community are in the lower-middle class economic bracket, they cannot afford to purchase housing in a higher range. Moreland residents would be paid in full for their homes, but they would be displaced from their former neighborhood and would not be guaranteed low-cost housing anywhere else in Shaker.

In defense of their lack of plans for lower-cost housing, city officials claim Shaker Heights is a middle and higher-class community and should remain so. City Hall should not concentrate solely on apartment and Town House construction, but should rather put emphasis on rehabilitation and inner development.



Dubick Lauds Social Gains

by Mitch Dubick

The success of any functioning organization may be measured, at least roughly, by its ability to both renovate and innovate. Social Council is such an organization, which has tried this year to combine new ideas with old ones to improve our Social Program. Beginning last September we set out to take each event apart and add, improvise, and improve it for this year. We strove to make each event better than ever before, from our Kick Off Dance and Beat Heights Breakfast, to the Derby Dance and Homecoming, to the A.F.S. Open House in fall and winter. We also aimed to bring in new innovations, as evidenced by the Exam Bang Carnival and Hard Times Party.

FINANCIALLY, WE have enjoyed the most successful year in the Council's history, enabling us to donate money to the A.F.S. Program and Student Council, as well as providing funds for redecorating the Social Room this summer. For this we are indebted to you, the student body, for supporting our events throughout the year.

A.F.S.'ers Bid Farewell, Embark on Eastern Tour

Shaker's American Field Service students Vicky Bekeris and Geoff Fougere will soon be bidding their foster-kin goodbye and embarking on an AFS bus tour of the eastern United States.

THE TOUR will begin on July 3 and will terminate with a week in New York City starting on July 16. Some forty other A.F.S. students who have spent the year in the United States will thus have the opportunity to meet and compare notes.

From New York, Geoff will fly to Los Angeles, and then home to New Zealand. His next six months will be spent working in either a sheep-freezing or pea-freezing plant. He will then attend the University of Canterbury.

SAYS GEOFF of his stay in Shaker: "I want very much to say thanks to all the kids at Shaker for everything."

Vicky will fly directly home from New York to Argentina where she will attend the University of Buenos Aires, majoring in physics. She plans eventually to teach physics at the college level. She wants to continue work for A.F.S. in the future by interviewing potential applicants and host-families.

"I HONESTLY think that A.F.S. is the most effective instrument for peace," Vicky says.

Stanavage Urges Students To Redress Ills of World

by Dr. John A. Stanavage

Amidst falling dust and dying din, the school year 1966-67 is settling quietly to earth. As always, it has been a frantic, demanding, challenging, dismaying, exciting year for everyone. You as young students and we as superannuated teachers have crossed minds and swords, ideas, and ideals, aspirations and hopes for the last 10 months. If we have grown in the process, then it has been a good year of learning for you and a fine year of teaching for us. If not, there always is next year to start anew.

MANY DISCONNECTED thoughts crowd to mind as I glance over the last ten months and ponder upon the future—your future, the future of our country, yes—even the future of our school. Without rhyme or reason three loom largest.

Item: It is good that you young people are young. This is not a mere Irish bull, I assure you. I mean it is good you have the vision to see the shoddy compromises man has made with life and himself, good that you have the strength and the resolution to challenge these failures of will and spirit. But one warning. As you cheerfully blame them for poisoning the world, remember it is you alone who must redress it.

ITEM: You grow into the stature of manhood by giving of yourself freely to others. A host of Shaker students this year have added cubits to their height by the help they so freely have given to others. I humbly salute them, for they are the vanguard of a better tomorrow.

But summer is almost upon us, and this is no season for my tedious, portly philosophy. Instead of pondering on my words, just go forth to a delightful vacation.

September will inexorably return, and that quickly enough.

Interns Operate City Hall, Student Officials Govern

The Government Intern Program provided twenty-four Shaker students with the unique opportunity to manage the city government on Thursday, May 25, at Shaker Heights City Hall.

STUDENTS INTERESTED in serving as city officials took an objective test last April which was devised by Jerry Graham, supervisor and teacher co-ordinator with City Hall. The test involved questions about general governmental operations and specific Shaker Heights operations. Students were assigned official positions on the basis of their scores on this test.

In preparation for their day in charge, the students attended two important meetings. Each student took the responsibility of meeting with the official whose position he was to fill and discussed with him the duties and problems connected with his office.

THE TOPIC for the discussion held during the afternoon council meeting was "The Moreland Redevelopment Plan," a plan concerning housing construction. City officials and their student counterparts met at the Brown Derby Restaurant for lunch.

Chairman Peter Holmes, who served as mayor, says, "The purpose of the program was to give each student who participated a good idea of what municipal government is all about and discover its problems."

Russell Returns Peaceably To Nigerian Teaching Post

by Tom Kent

Thomas Russell, a member of the Shaker science department, will leave Shaker this year for his second term of duty with the Peace Corps in Nigeria.

MR. RUSSELL served in Nigeria from 1963 until 1965 teaching science and mathematics at a government boarding school for boys at Bauchi in Nigeria's northern region. He found his students friendly and eager to learn, and the school facilities satisfactory.

During 1965-1966 he studied at Harvard University and there received his Master of Arts in Teaching degree. He came to Shaker at the beginning of this school year.

IN JUNE, Mr. Russell will begin six weeks of special training in Washington, and then leave for Kaduna, Nigeria. For two years, he will be an associate director of Peace Corps activities for Northern Nigeria.

Ticket Drive Falls Behind

This year's Advance Football Ticket Sale proceeded slowly toward its goal of $7,000. Begun May 12, the drive ran until May 27. The junior class has outsold the sophomores, while the seniors are in the rear; the total collected is about $1,900.

ALLAN RAYMOND of the coaching staff expressed concern over the sale. "Lack of enthusiasm by the majority of students indicates that they are unconcerned about the athletic activities."

Workers Aid Hough Fund

Heights and Shaker Heights High Schools combined forces for a workday on Saturday, May 20, to raise money for a playground to be built in the Hough area. Heights had a combination car wash-bake sale to raise additional funds.

MEMBERS OF both communities offered the students jobs ranging from painting a dog house to washing a private airplane to doing yard work.

Twelve Mercer Elementary School students organized a neighborhood carnival to earn money for the project. They made a total of $41.00. The students who participated are Arny Goldman, Amy Kleinman, David Weissman, Linda Nickman, Johnnie Kleinman, Janet Weissm, Alan Inglis, David Inglis, Jay Wengel, Steve Bruder, Reid Morse, and Johnnie Katovsky.

THE GOAL of the project, lowered from the original $6,000, is $4,500. The work day itself earned between $3,700 and $4,000, including a personal donation of $500 by Maurice Bernstein.

Raymondmen Reign on Ohio Links

Swatters Sport Unbeaten Slate

Climaxing an LEL crown and a win in the districts, the Red Raider golf team, coached by Al Raymond, brought the Ohio State Golf crown back to Shaker for the first time since 1959, with a victory in Columbus, May 26 and 27.

BURNING UP Ohio State's Scarlet course, senior captain Jim Robson, senior Eddie Rosenbaum, junior Jerry Miller, and sophomore Mike Birkhold compiled a 144 hole total of 626. The nearest competitor, Toledo Ottawa Hills, was seven strokes back. On the first day, Robson led the entire field with a brilliant one under par 71, while Rosenbaum, Miller, and Birkhold carved out 79, 81, and 81 respectively.

The final round on Saturday, however, saw Robson sky to an 82, number two man Rosenbaum cut his score to a 74, Birkhold garner a 76, and Miller climb to an 82. Their average of 78 25 was considerably better than the 80 figure that Coach Raymond estimated would be needed to win. Robson and Rosenbaum tied for third medalist honors with 153.

THE WEEK BEFORE, May 18, the Raiders won the District championship at Highland handily with a 326 total and a 12 stroke lead over the nearest contender Valley Forge. Robson again sparkled as he carried the field with a two over par 73, the lowest score in District history.

Jim Robson follows through with the form that finished third in the State tourney.

Bob Hanna strains across the finish line to win the 100 as Greg Williams follows closely.

Jay Davis fields a grounder as Robert Weiner backs him up in home action with Shaw.

Prior to the triumph in Columbus, the swatters had also wrapped up an undefeated, 11-0-1 record, and an undisputed LEL championship. This was accompanied by a victory in the Lake Erie League tournament at Manakiki, where the Raymondmen, led by Robson's 74, compiled a 327 total for a three stroke margin over Valley Forge.

THE TEAM has three departing lettermen this year. Robson, Rosenbaum, and Butch Bilsky are leaving behind a record of fine golf.

Four Losses Drop Batmen From First

It's been a bad year for dynasties. Last September the Yankees finished last in the American League. Last month the Celtics lost their playoff series with the 76ers. And last week the Raiders fell into third place in the Lake Erie League baseball standings.

UNTIL MAY 19, the Heinlenmen seemed headed for their fifth straight LEL crown with a 7-2 ledger. But consecutive losses to Brush, Euclid, Lakewood, and Shaw proved that the Raiders are really mortals.

Shaker bumped off Lakewood, 4-2, in 11 innings, on May 19. Angelo Valenti picked up the win. Things started to go badly the next day when unearned runs provided Brush with the margin of victory in a 5-4 contest.

THE SKID continued when, on Monday, May 22, ailing Alan Ptak lost a squeaker, 2-1, to first place Euclid. Lakewood got revenge, on May 24, with a 7-4 victory. The Rangers led 4-0 after the first inning, and Shaker could never catch up.

On May 25, Shaw's pitching aces Mike Wolfgram and Buddy Schultz combined for a 3-2 triumph. Shaker's lone runs came on Ken "Babe" Leventhal's seventh inning home run.

PTAK ended the season with a .58 ERA and an 8-4 record. Leading hitters were Darryl Booker and Kevin Pyle at .388, Bob Shapps at .377, Valenti, recently named to the East squad for the Greater Cleveland All-Star game, at .370, Davis at .344, and Leventhal.

Ricers Follow LEL First With Victory in Districts

After clinching the LEL championship and finishing undefeated in dual-meet competition, Shaker's superb track team climaxed an outstanding season by winning the first District Meet in Shaker history.

Leading the way were Craig Vance, who won the mile, Dana Garfield, who won the discus, Bill Reed, who took second place in the high jump, Charles Cooney, who finished second in the two-mile run, Bob Hanna, who finished second in the 100-yard dash, Milan Tiff, who finished second in the long jump and third in the high jump, and Greg Goss, who took third place in the long jump.

THE RAIDERS encountered some stiff competition in the regional meet the following week, and only Reed and Tiff qualified for the state meet. Neither was able to place at Columbus, however.

In the Lake Erie League Meet at Euclid, the trackmen finished a close second, despite the absence of star sprinter Bob Hanna, who had a pulled muscle.

MANY TOP performers from this year's championship team are graduating, including Vance, Garfield, Reed, Hanna, Mike Modlin, Bill Polley, Philip Jones, Dick Schwegler, John Schofield, Ken Kretchmer, and Lee Harvey. But next year's team promises to be a good one also. Returning from this year's varsity team will be Goss, Cooney, Tiff, Chris Gibbon, Bob Yeager, Jim Conforti, Greg Williams, Lavelle Ashley, George Freeman, Charles Jernigan, Eric Mumford, Tom Cargill, Dave Weinstein, Drew Barkley, George Shiffman, and Lester Sandifer.

Advancing from this year's fine Junior varsity team will be Jeff Clellan, Spencer Schwegler, Dan Polster, Gerald Wilson, Larry Koosed, Gerald Cargile, Tom Skove, Dave Cavallo, Robert and LeRoy Johnston, Russ Duncan, Andy Leon, Marc Fisher, Alex Waller, Brad Schrader, Dave Brock, Pete Kilroy, Gene Gardner, Bob Kirschenbaum, and Eric Henderson.

Netters Drop Gilmour, Hawken; Stall in District Competition

The Red Raider netmen, who rounded out their LEL schedule last fall in second place with a 5-2 ledger, split their spring contests for an overall 7-4 slate and failed to weather the District competition.

IN THE FOUR spring matches, Shaker attained a 2-2 record. The Red and White overcame Gilmour and Hawken by identical scores of 4-1. Both the Carstensen-Lackritz and Orleans-Walker combinations were victorious in these matches. Florian and Rosen also won their individual contests. The Brownmen ended their season losing to University School and Western Reserve Academy.

At the District meet, held on the Euclid courts May 19 and 20, Ken Harris lost in the second round to the eventual District Champion. The doubles team of Chip Carstensen and Jim Lackritz, and singles player Murray Rosen reached the quarter-finals where they lost. The other duo of Aaron Miller and Jerry Florian met its Waterloo at the beginning of the final eliminations.

COACH FRED BROWN hopes to reclaim the LEL tennis crown next year. He will have four varsity lettermen returning to his squad. Asked about next season, Brown said, "The prospects are bright but we will have to watch the teams from Parma, Euclid, and Cleveland Heights."

Shaker Rules LEL

The Red and White has captured the Principal's Cup for the second consecutive year. LEL championships in golf and track spearheaded the come-from-behind effort, while the batmen, with their recent 10-8 victory over Parma, clinched the drive with a third-place finish. The Raiders edged out Euclid.
